City Attorney Houin introduced Ordinance No. 2026-2268, An Ordinance Regarding Parking Motor Vehicles in Residential Lawn Areas, on first reading.

City Attorney Houin provided an update on ONE Marshall County. He explained that because the actual work was mostly done in subcommittees, they've decided that the full board did not need to meet every month, but rather every other month. He stated that in those alternating months, they're forming a task force to bring in more volunteers and more organizations to do some of those committee updates and coordinate between the committees.

There were no updates for the Comprehensive Plan.
